Coleman Grands Feted At Banquet

Recognized for their outstanding accomplishments this season, Coleman Grands hockey team were feted at a banquet in the Elks hall sponsored by the Board of Trade Wednesday evening. Over 120 persons attended the turkey banquet and affair which was under the chairmanship of John Salus of Coleman.

In opening the program Mr. Salus remarked the Coleman Grands had again put Coleman on the map and on behalf of the team, coach and manager and other officials, he expressed thanks to all the faithful fans and all who gave support to the team during the year. He then called on Bill Fraser of the Grands, who expressed the thanks of the team to the Coleman Board of Trade for their recognition of the players.

Mr. Fraser mentioned that in the past 16 years that this was the third time that the Grands were able to win the Alberta championship.

He mentioned that although Coleman had had good teams in the past they had only been able to come to second place. He gave much credit to the players for their faithfulness pointing out that on many occasions the players just came home from a hard day's work and turned out for a game that same evening. Quoting coach Leo Duracher, Mr. Fraser said it's the players on the ice that produce the goods no matter who is coaching them. In closing Mr. Fraser gave thanks to the fans for their loyal support all season.

Mayor Frank Abousafty was then called upon and in his opening remarks said that the cup coming to Coleman was somewhat of a surprise to many, for most of the games played were on outside ice. Mayor Abousafty then outlined hockey in the Pass from the early 1900's, reminiscing on the days when Coleman had no arena and hockey was played on an outdoor rink in front of the Coleman hotel.

Mayor Abousafty jokingly commented on these early-day games, saying that after standing out in the cold for a while the fans used to retreat back into the hotel and have a few to get warmed, then come out to see the rest of the period. He also recalled the days when teams from Coleman used to walk all the way to Blairmore, play a game of hockey then walk back to Coleman after the game.

He also reviewed the occasions when the Coleman team went into the playoffs and on one occasion lost out by one goal to Port Arthur for the Allan Cup in 1926. He also remarked on the 13 years that Coleman never lost a game for which he gave credit to George Jenkins, a Coleman referee whom he said must have officiated at the games.

Pointing out the value of hockey and an arena to a community Mayor Abousafty announced that Coleman town council had gone on record this week to look into the possibility of putting in an artificial ice plant in the Coleman arena. This matter would be put to a vote of the ratepayers in the very near future. Mr. Abousafty said that it would not be necessary to borrow money for this project as the town was in good financial position.

Mayor Abousafty also announced that Coleman had again won distinction this week as he announced that the Coleman Collieries McGillivray mine had been advised today that they had won the Dominion Trophy for coal mines and also the Regional Trophy for coal mines in the Prairie provinces for having the least frequency of compensable accidents in the Dominion of Canada.

The gathering were then treated to a four-minute recording of the last hockey game played in Stettler when the Grands won the Alberta Intermediate 'B' Championship and Ted Kryevka was presented with the Agnew Trophy. The well enjoyed recording was supplied by Mr. Brown, radio announcer of Camrose, who was to have spoken at the banquet but was unable to attend.

Ted Kryevka, secretary of the Grands, was then called upon and expressed the thanks of the club to the Coleman Board of Trade for the fine dinner commenting that he and team hoped it would not take another 15 years for the team to win the championship.

Mayor Frank Abousafty was then called upon and presented each of the players with championship trophies.

The accompanying photo shows the members of the Coleman Grands who won the Alberta Intermediate 'B' Championship this year and also won the Alberta, British Columbia, Montana League Championship.

Regular Meeting Old Age Pensioners

The monthly meeting of the Coleman Old Age Pensioners Association was held as usual in the Elks hall on April 7.

Our president, Mrs. Nora Goulding still being absent, first vice-president Mr. Hill took her place. Secretary Mrs. Ethel Kostelnik. 2nd vice-president Mrs. Beddington.

The meeting opened with singing of O Canada, and then the Charter was draped in memory of Mr. W. Fraser, sr. and the members singing: Abide With Me.

The minutes were read and were adopted. A letter was read and dealt with. A bill was presented and was passed to be paid. The financial statement was read and accepted and the secretary informed us there were 125 members to date.

The sick committee gave their report and the secretary told us she had sent cards and flowers whenever the occasion arose. She also told us our president, Mrs. Nora Goulding, was much better and probably be at our next meeting. She was sorry to say there was nothing to report about the branch meeting at Macleod as the weather and sickness stopped anyone going.

We then welcomed Mr. Kindt, MP, for the Macleod constituency. He told us it was indeed a pleasure to come to Coleman on this occasion and see so many members present. He said he had a deep respect and admiration for elderly people, his own mother being one of them. He managed to get the members in a humorous vein by telling a story about a young boy who was on his way to his aunts, who resided at the seaside.

One of his parents told him to eat anything that was put in front of him and no questions asked by him. He not having been at the seaside before did not know anything about sea food. The first plate set before him was a head of celery with lots of leaves. The second plate was soup which looked like dish water and the plate contained a crab. Well, said he, I don't mind eating the flowers and drinking the dishwater but I'm dashed if I'm going to eat that hush!

Mr. Kindt then talked about matters in which we were all interested. Social Security and how it would be nice to form an Industrial Planning Board for the creation of industry and not just one industry but several and something would have to be done immediately, and he would see that something was done but it would take time as it could not be done all at once. In closing he stated that some future date, he would, he hoped, be able to come again.

Mr. Hill then thanked him and the members showed their appreciation in the usual way.

Mr. Jack Rushton then gave a hearty vote of thanks on behalf of the members and remarked "We were expecting something from our government." Mr. Hill welcomed visitors from Blairmore. Mrs. Senky donated one pair of pillow cases to be raffled at our next meeting.

The meeting then adjourned because there was a big program coming on next and so we all closed the meeting with the singing of God Save the Queen.

Mr. Filafillo was appointed master of ceremonies. The Elks program was as follows:

First, Donna Trots and Sharon Sandworth, accordion duet.

Second, Mr. R. Chernaack, two vocal solos.

Third, Brian Zak, piano solo.

Fourth, Mrs. John Holyk, tap dancers—six in all.

Fifth, Barber play which was very comical to say the least.

Sixth, Mrs. Myrsilek, two vocal solos.

Seventh, Lorraine Petsuk, piano solo.

Eighth, A. Zemanik, accordion solo.

Ninth, tap dancers.

Tenth, Mrs. Betty Tomasku, two vocal solos.

Eleventh, Mrs. Ed Filafillo, accordion solo.

By special request Mrs. Pearl Myrsilek was asked to render the song "Sugar in the Morning" again. All the artists then sang "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here".

Mr. Hill thanked all who had taken part in the wonderful program. We then all sat down to a delicious lunch put on by the lunch committee and everyone went home after an enjoyable evening.

Board of Trade To Hold 1958 Rodeo

At the special rodeo meeting held last week the Board of Trade decided to once again sponsor the Coleman Rodeo. Considerable discussion took place over ways and means. With only nine members present out of the normal 60, it was rather difficult to reach a concrete decision.

The main point of discussion arose around the Queen contest, and as to how many entrants could enter, it was finally decided that a committee be appointed.

F. Abousafty and R. Upton are to approach various organizations throughout the Pass in regards to entering Queens.

Herman Linder will again be the Rodeo director and Bill Fraser will be the assistant director.

Rodeo chairman will be Frank Abousafty, with R. Upton as secretary. The date of the Rodeo will be Saturday, July 5.

Other committees appointed to handle the various departments are: Queen committee, chairman, Wm. Holyk; G. Jenkins and R. Floodsted.

Publicity committee: M. Dunford.

J. Owens and F. DeCecco Advance ticket sales; E. Fabro, Catering; J. Salus, J. Holyk. Finance: F. Abousafty, R. Upton, J. Allen.

Ticket sales: J. Allen and F. Graham.

Stage committee: C. Rogers and A. Graham.

Night entertainment: Jim Montalbetti, Mrs. W. Parvis and Rev. Fleming.

Hingo and street dance: A. Krywolt, Berri Bond, Steve Krywolt. The matter of a parade marshal was left in the hands of F. Abousafty and D. Young.

Another meeting will be held in the next two weeks at which time it is hoped that more members will be present and the various committees will be able to present an interim report.

CHILD NARROWLY MISSES DEATH BY TRAIN

Parents are warned that children playing on the railroad tracks are in very grave danger of being hit by trains.

On Saturday last, a small child about six years of age, narrowly missed instant death on the crossing in West Coleman.

It appears that the child was on the tracks at the crossing as a train approached; it attempted to get off and only by falling backwards that it missed being hit.

The CPR has asked that all parents warn their children to stay off the tracks, as another very serious accident was only narrowly avoided at Burmis last week when two teen-age boys were nearly struck by a train as they were walking down the tracks, going fishing.

Other accidents can happen if children persist in playing around box cars in the rail yards.

So parents, please warn your children to stay away from the rail tracks. We don't want to have to print the obituary.

OF MANY THINGS (By Ambrose Hills)

Is Socialism Done For?

The other night, when the political landslide took place, a friend turned to me and said "Well . . . that's the end of socialism in Canada!" I shook my head.

Socialism doesn't die because a few CCF members are tossed out. I wish it did spell the end of political socialism, because I frankly admit that in my opinion political socialism is immoral, even though some very fine persons have preached it.

Anything good about socialism can be practiced any time, anywhere, by any of us. True believers in true socialism are very rare birds indeed — they are the persons who are ready at any time to give of their substance to others less fortunate. No laws are needed for this sort of thing.

Political socialism, on the other hand, proposes to level us all to the same standards by law or force. It leaves no need or room for charity. It legislates our moral life in that area. It robs Peter to pay Paul and does it all in the name of morality. To me it is a great sham and pretence, a horrible hoax, and I want no part of it. But I am not naive enough to think it is by any means dead.

As long as it may be preached by a politician that he will give to John out of the pocket of Joe, there'll be a certain number of Johns ready to vote for political socialism. As long as it can be made to sound like a political party dedicated to the poor and the unfortunate, there will be innocent, high-minded well-meaning persons ready to work for the party.

But Canadian voters are about the best-informed voters in the world, relatively speaking. The fact that they've shown, so clearly, that they do not want political socialism is cause for celebration.

Not too much celebration, however. For both the Liberals and the Conservatives have been willing to use lures from the bait box of the socialists to hook voters. The urge for pie in the sky doesn't die in a hurry.

Mrs. Diefenbaker Urges Women Support Cancer Crusade

A forceful appeal to Canadian women to support the annual Cancer Crusade was voiced in Regina last week by Mrs. Joha Diefenbaker, wife of the newly-elected Prime Minister.

In commending the activities of the Canadian Cancer Society in the control of cancer, Mrs. Diefenbaker said "Control of cancer requires not only the best efforts of our medical people, but the volunteer co-operation of the general public as well. This co-operation is organized and directed by the Canadian Cancer Society, which was formed some 20 years ago at the request of the Canadian Medical Association."

"One of the principal functions of the Society," Mrs. Diefenbaker said, "is to educate the public about cancer, to teach the symptoms of the disease and to motivate people with these symptoms to seek early treatment. It is vital that everyone should know, for instance, that cancers in accessible areas can often be completely cured by proper treatment if it is begun early enough."

In speaking of the extensive research program which is being carried out across the country, Mrs. Diefenbaker said "Cancer will never be completely controlled until science discovers the cause and a sure, over-all cure for the disease. This means cancer research. An active research program is being conducted by the Society's affiliated body, the National Cancer Institute of Canada, and this year over $800,000 will be spent on research and the support of the training of research scientists."

Mrs. Diefenbaker also praised the women of Canada in the work they do in furthering cancer control. "The women of Canada can feel proud of the very important part they are playing in this vital work," in conclusion Mrs. Diefenbaker said "While we can't all find time to canvass, show films, distribute literature and organize meetings, we can support the work by giving to the canvassers when they call at our doors."

THE DIESEL FIREMAN DISPUTE ON CANADIAN PACIFIC

TWO YEARS AGO, in April 1956 the Firemen's Union demanded wage increases and other benefits involving substantial increased costs.

AT THE SAME TIME Canadian Pacific proposed that, as firemen were not necessary, they should no longer be carried on diesel locomotives in freight and yard service.

CANADIAN PACIFIC also proposed dropping both arbitrary wage payments for which no service was rendered and differential wage rates in mountain territory.

IN DECEMBER 1956 a Federal Board of Conciliation recommended substantial wage increases and other benefits. At the same time, it found that firemen were not required on diesel locomotives in freight and yard service and made provision for protection of their employment. It also found that payment of arbitraries and mountain differential should be modified.

CANADIAN PACIFIC accepted the Conciliation Board's report.

THE FIREMEN'S UNION rejected the report and called a strike on January 2, 1957.

THE STRIKE WAS ENDED on January 11, 1957 on the following basis:—

1. Canadian Pacific agreed to pay the substantial wage increases retroactive to April 1 of the previous year and other benefits recommended by the Conciliation Board.
2. The Union and Canadian Pacific agreed to refer the DIESEL ISSUE as well as payment of arbitraries and mountain differential to a ROYAL COMMISSION.
3. The Union and Canadian Pacific agreed to negotiate these issues in the light of and immediately following the publication of the ROYAL COMMISSION'S Report.

THE KELLOCK ROYAL COMMISSION of three senior judges devoted ten months to hearing 119 witnesses and, at the request of the Firemen's Union, made on-the-ground investigations across Canada and also made observations on four major European railway systems. It was the most extensive and thorough investigation in the history of labour relations in Canada.

IN ITS UNANIMOUS REPORT published February 4, 1958 the ROYAL COMMISSION found that:—

1. Firemen are not required on diesel locomotives in freight and yard service on Canadian Pacific either for safety or any other reason.
2. The proposal of Canadian Pacific for protecting firemen from loss of employment and seniority is fair and generous.
3. Arbitraries have become unrealistic and should be dropped and payment made on the basis of service rendered.
4. Mountain differential payments should be dropped and replaced by valley differential.

CANADIAN PACIFIC accepted the report of the KELLOCK ROYAL COMMISSION as it had undertaken to do when the Commission was appointed.

THE UNION rejected the report, stating that nothing in it was acceptable to them. They did so knowing that not one fireman would suffer loss of railway employment who was hired before the proposal to discontinue firemen on freight and yard diesels was made in April, 1956. All across Canada there are less than 100 firemen hired after that date and now working who face possible lay-off.

ALL EFFORTS of Canadian Pacific to settle the dispute through negotiations with the Firemen's Union have failed.

FOR TWO YEARS firemen have enjoyed substantial wage increases. During these two years action on the diesel issue has been postponed while the Union had every contention it could advance investigated by two enquiries.

CANADIAN PACIFIC has a duty to the public to operate the railway efficiently and economically.

CANADIAN PACIFIC, to fulfill this duty, has given notice to the Firemen's Union that the findings of the KELLOCK

ROYAL COMMISSION will take effect on May 11, 1958.

THIS ACTION is in accordance with Federal labour law.

First Coleman Cub Pack News

(Column by Kenneth Murdoch)

The Law of the Wolf Cub Pack: 1. The cub gives in to the old Wolf. The older person knows what is best so you should always obey their orders. 2. The Cub does not give in to himself. You may sometimes be given a difficult and tiring job, but you should never give up.

Coleman Collieries Receive Dominion Safety Trophy

Last week the management of the Coleman Collieries received notice that they had been awarded the Dominion Safety Trophy from the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy. This award is sponsored by Mr. Roland Morris, general manager of Nine Safety Appliances Co. of Canada.

The following is an excerpt of the text of the award.

"It gives us great pleasure to confirm that, by virtue of the fact that during the Institute committee on the John T. Ryan Safety Trophies found that during the year 1957 the mine under your charge had the lowest frequency of compensable accidents among all Canadian coal mines. The Council has been pleased to direct that the Dominion Trophy for Coal Mines and the Regional Trophy for Coal Mines in the Prairie division, will be awarded for the year 1957 to the McGillivray mine"—and quote.

In addition to the above awards two other safety certificates have been awarded some time ago to the Coleman Trucking Co.

The first certificate of merit was awarded and terminated on the January 31, 1958, for a distance of 550,000 miles being driven without a serious accident. The second certificate was awarded in August, 1957, for a distance of 1,314,000 miles driven without a serious accident.

These safety awards are a credit to the Safety committee of the mine under the guidance of Mr. W. Goodwin, mine manager, and Mr. J. Curry, safety supervisor. But the great credit goes to the men who worked in the mines as they were the ones who promoted safety in their jobs as well. Congratulations to all—you were the men who made these awards
